Dear Muhammad

With my apology for delay here I am finally with my comments. There are still some revisions to be done on your end. In particular, in your methodology where you have now brought up totally new methods (in-depth interviews with tourists) which are not either properly explained (when, how many, etc.) but also they are not shown in your analysis at all!! When I was assuring you that the paper will be published I assumed that you addressed all referee comments properly but now you really confused me and I am not convinced about your exact methodology any more. You also speak about brochure being published between 2014 and 2015. How many, which type, for which market, which language? You also speak about different stakeholders participating in the design of the brochure. There were many different brochures or there was a co-creative participation on one brochure by all stakeholders? You see, I'm afraid there are still many issues that remain unclear and please clarify if it is possible to explain it properly at all.

Also there are other structural issues for which I asked explanations within the paper. Also your abstract needs to be expanded to 200 words; also the English is still not fully correct. Once you make all the necessary correction please give it to native English speaker to proofread it. Thank you.

If the necessary revisions can be done in a clear way then please provide me with the new version of the paper within the next 5-6 days if possible.

Kind regards

Irena

Dear Muhammad

Please dont worry. You will be published. Just hectic times here with many deadlines here and later this week we will attend the list of all papers we have planned to publish in June issue.

But I do appreciate the refreshment!:-)

regards

Irena

Dear Ms. Irena Ateljevic,

warmest greetings from Indonesia.

I am writing to make sure that my article will be published in your journal. And I do hope it will be so.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon

Best regards
